Mr. Walter Reid Wolf
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Walter:

I seem to be in my usual complex of responsibilities and have not yet been able to find the time when I could suggest in advance a definite date for our conference. This is just to let you know that I have received your letter of June 21st, and that I will write you again as soon as I can see the future a little more clearly.

I am glad to hear that you really got away and had something in the nature of a real vacation. The trouble with these vacations, as I know all too well, is that, as you say, you are completely swamped when you get back, and apt to use up whatever reserves of energy in the clean up that the vacation has built up on the credit side.

With best regards to Allen and to you.

Sincerely,
